ONLY ONE LEFT TO BE CAPTURED

Fifth of the Robinson Murderers Landed in the Tanks.

Jackson, Alias "Yellow," Is Brought Back From Oregon.

Policeman Charles Taylor arrived last night from Grants Pass, Or., having in custody Richard Jackson, alias "Yellow," the fifth of the gang of assassins who are being held for the murder of Policeman Eugene Robinson on the morning of January 21. Four others are now in the City Prison awaiting trial for the crime, and the sixth, "Kid" Goucher, is still at large. Those in custody are William Kaufman, alias "St. Louis Fat"; Frank Woods, alias "St. Louis Frank"; W. H. Henderson, John Courtney, alias "Leadville Jimmy," and Jackson, the latest addition to "murderers' row."

Jackson is a mulatto, about six feet tall, with sinister face and stolid manner. He was arrested at Grants Pass on the charge of burglary last month, and while being held a photograph of him was sent to the San Francisco police department. It was at once recognized as a likeness of the man wanted in connection with the Robinson case. The Oregon authorities were notified and agreed to surrender the prisoner.

Jackson told the reporters that he was a victim of unfortunate circumstances and had nothing to do with Robinson's murder. He admitted being with the gang that night, but declared that the killing of Robinson was entirely unpremeditated and that he took no part in it.

Jackson is said to have an extensive criminal record, and admits having been arrested in nearly every State in the Union. He is a known burglar, and the police claim that he was the most daring of the thieves who belonged to the gang that murdered Policeman Robinson. The prisoner was supposed to have left San Francisco in company with Goucher, but could not be induced to say anything of his companion's whereabouts.

READY TO HANG FOR HIS CRIME

Slayer of Hugh Duffy Declares He Will Die "Game."

Has No Defense to Offer and Is Willing to Pay the Penalty.

Card #37.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

SACRAMENTO, April 26.—Charles Wardrip, a youth of 19, confesses that he is the murderer of Hugh Duffy, and declares that he prefers to hang for the crime rather than undergo imprisonment for life.

"I know I am in for it," said Wardrip to Sheriff Charles Naylor of Salt Lake, who, with Detective Max P. Fisher, arrived with the prisoner in this city to-day. "I know it's all off and that I am going to swing, but I intend to die game. No life imprisonment for me. I am going to face it like a man. I will die game like my brother did, who was executed at Columbus, Ohio, five years ago."

Chief of Police Sullivan has in his possession memoranda written by Wardrip and handed by him to a cellmate at Salt Lake, in which he stated that he was in Seattle and Tacoma during the week in which the murder of Hugh Duffy was committed in Sacramento. He expected this cellmate, with the aid of these notes, to help him establish an alibi. When asked why he had done this, Wardrip said a man would do anything when he knew his life was at stake.

One of the most damaging circumstances against Wardrip was the statement of Dr. A. A. Meyer, a retired physician, lately arrived from South Africa and living on the dairy farm of his widowed sister, Mrs. Hirschman, at Salt Lake. Wardrip and another man were occupying the loft of a barn on the place when Dr. Meyer heard a conversation in which Wardrip told of having killed a man in California, in order to save a boy confederate. Wardrip says the boy was separated from him on the night of the murder and he has not seen him since. He declares his only object in shooting Duffy was to save the boy, who had been seized by Duffy, while Wardrip was still in the Bartell house, which he and the boy had already ransacked.

Wardrip was released from San Quentin in November last after a year's term for a burglary committed at Madera. He was born in Kentucky, of Russian parents.

If he has been in your town he may return so be sure and notify your dentists of his description as he may call during office hours to inspect the premises. Do not leave written description as dentists may leave same laying around where the thief could see it.

GUN STORE BURGLARIZED

$50.00 REWARD

Expert burglars entered W. H. Eckhardt's Gun Store, 609 and 611 K street, on Tuesday night, March 11, 1902, by means of sawing off a ½ inch iron bar from basement door. They left behind 2 saw blades 9½ inches long, one of which is marked "Griffin," also a common table napkin, which was evidently used by being wrapped around one end of saw blade as a handhold to operate the blade. A citizen saw 2 men coming away from the vicinity of the rear entrance of Mr. Eckhardt's store about 11:45 a. m., the shorter man carrying 2 new square looking small leather cases, and the other and larger man carried a larger and also new looking leather case. The 2 cases carried by No. 1 (short man) are evidently 2 new chocolate colored leather shotgun shell cases stolen from this store. The partitions (blue color) had been torn out of the shell cases, possibly to enable the burglars to fill these cases with cutlery and other goods; these partitions were left behind in store.

They must have made several trips as they could by no means carry the shotguns (even if taken apart) in these cases, nor was there room in them to carry all the goods they took.

These goods may have been re-packed in a trunk, box or large telescope valises or other packages, and same may have been shipped to some point in your vicinity, and may be sold in small lots or by piece meal, unless some "obliging" buyer would take the lot. The burglars selected certain goods as if they were filling a certain order, and it is not at all unlikely, that they may be filling an order for some crooked gun store merchant. Two similiar jobs were done in San Francisco in the past few months. The aggregate weight of the goods stolen from Mr. Eckhardt's store is between 90 and 100 pounds.

DESCRIPTION OF MEN: No. 1 is supposed to be a young man, possibly 5 feet, 6 or 7 inches tall and is supposed to have worn a light colored soft hat; but it may be that No. 2 wore the light colored hat; had a quick and possibly jerky walk. The citizen who saw them says the taller made 1 step to the shorter one's two. No. 2 may be older and is about 5 feet, 10 or 11 inches tall.

GOODS STOLEN: 13 shotguns: (1) One is a 16-guage hammerless Parker, Damascus steel barrels, chambers of this gun have been cut out to use a No. 12-guage shell, but was not finished in chambers, chambers are "ringed."

(2) One Remington hammerless shotgun, No. 12-guage, 30-inch Damascus barrels, automatic ejector, gun is nealy new.

(3) One second-hand Remington hammerless shotgun, No. 12-guage, barrels worn somewhat bright from use.

VICTIMS LURED TO THEIR FATE IN THE FOREST

Capture.

Arrest of M. D. Landis of Marshfield Believed to Have Placed in Custody a Man Guilty of Many Misdeeds.

[Special Dispatch to "The Examiner."]

PORTLAND (Or.), June 6.—In arresting M. D. Landis, formerly of Coos county, this State, the police of Collinsville, Cherokee Nation, I. T., have taken into custody a man who is suspected of having committed a series of the foulest and most cold-blooded murders on record.

Governor Chamberlain has just issued a requisition for the return of Landis to Oregon. The specific charge against him is that he murdered Jesse B. Eudailey, near Empire City, on May 23, 1901. Eudailey went to Coos county to look at timber lands, with a view to making a purchase. He had several hundred dollars in money. Landis was a timber land speculator, with an office at Marshfield, and he and Eudailey set out together on the fatal day to look over lands near Marshfield. Landis returned alone that night, and explained that Eudailey had decided to go by boat to California from Empire City and not return to Marshfield. Several months later some boys playing in the woods near Marshfield found Eudailey's body buried but a foot under the earth. He had been stabbed to death, and his money had been stolen. The resulting investigation revealed that at least ten other prospective timber buyers had disappeared after going forth into the woods piloted by Landis.

DESPERADO ARRESTED

Pedro Morales, Who Is Guilty of Three Murders, Is Captured.

LOS ANGELES, May 11.—Pedro Morales, whom the peace officers of California and Arizona and the Rurales of Northern Mexico have been hunting for more than five years, and who is regarded as one of the most desperate criminals in this part of the country, is a prisoner in the County Jail.

Not since notorious "Kid" Thompson, the train-robber, was incarcerated in the jail, has it contained a prisoner to whom is charged more crimes than Morales, and no prisoner who was ever confined in that institution was more closely watched than he will be.

The Sheriff's officers have information of three murders said to have been committed by him and the alleged killing of an officer of the law, the crime which made him a fugitive from justice.

He was brought to Los Angeles to-day by Sheriff Hammel from Yuma, near which city he was captured by strategy and through the connivance of persons whom Morales trusted.

Morales is a native of Los Angeles county and a member of a numerous family which formerly owned much property in the vicinity of Monrovia and the towns in that vicinity. He was never possessed of much wealth because the estate of his family had been divided, and much of it was in litigation. He worked as a laborer in the vicinity of San Gabriel.

The charge upon which he will be tried and of which he has made confession is the killing of Deputy Sheriff Lee Wilson at San Gabriel December 6, 1896.

VANDERSLICE'S BURGLAR CAUGHT

PRIVATE DETECTIVES CAPTURE CROOK AND RECOVER PROPERTY.

Man Giving Name of John Smith Thought to be a Professional Crook.

Under the name of John Smith the police have locked in a cell in the City Prison the man who night before last broke the show window of W. K. Vanderslice & Co., at 136 Sutter street, and stole a quantitiy of silverware valued at $200.

The man was arrested shortly before noon to-day with all of the stolen property in his possession by Captain Cullenden and Detective Cleary of the Morse Agency. He was trying to dispose of the goods at several pawnshops, but was not successful, as his manner aroused the suspicions of the pawnbrokers.

Captain Cullenden was given a good description of the man by a hack driver named Jackson, who saw the whole occurrence, but reached the scene of the robbery too late to be of any use in apprehending the thief. This morning word was received that the man had tried last night to dispose of the stolen property at a pawnshop on Kearny street, so this morning Cullenden and his men were out early looking for their man.

Shortly before noon they saw their man walking along Powell and saw him go into two or three places. He carried with him a heavy parcel. Finally he stopped a man on the street and spoke to him for a few minutes. When they parted Cullenden talked with this man and found that the thief offered to sell the goods for $40. They then arrested the man and took him to the City Prison.

When questioned about himself the man merely laughed and said that his name was John Smith. He refused to tell the police where he lived or to give any particulars about himself. It is thought, however, that he is a professional crook.

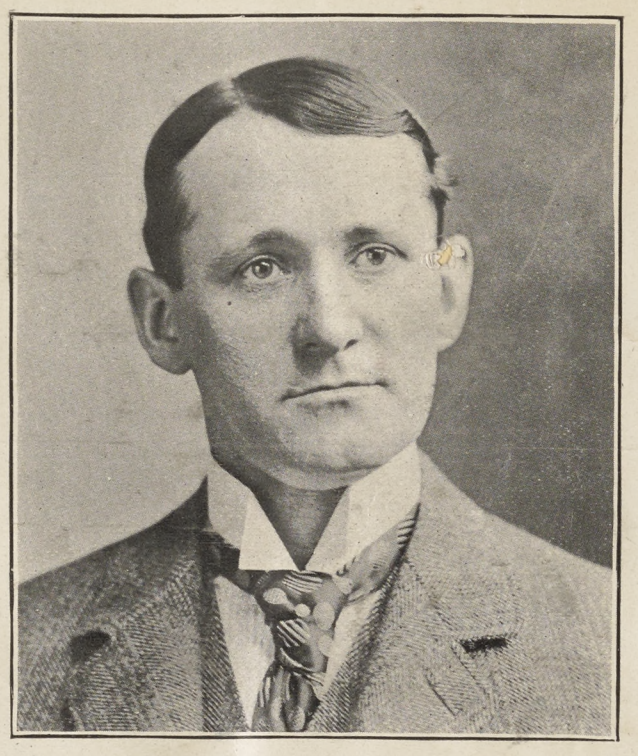
Handwriting of Charles B. Hadley



Photograph of Charles B. Hadley.

CHARLES B. HADLEY, whose photograph and handwriting appear hereon, is wanted by this department for the murder of Miss Eleanor Maude Fuller, a girl fifteen years of age. This girl, who was commonly known as Nora Fuller, left her home in this city on the afternoon of January 11, 1902, in response to a newspaper advertisement for a young white girl to take care of a baby in a good home and with a good family. She was to meet her employer at a restaurant in the business portion of the city. After leaving her home, the girl was not again seen alive. On February 8, 1902, the dead body of the girl was found in an unfurnished house at No. 2211 Sutter Street, this city. The house had, previous to January 11, 1902, been rented and supplied with a second-hand bed and second-hand bed clothing. The body of the girl was found on this bed. The girl had been strangled to death, and previous to death she had been sexually abused.

On the morning of January 16, 1902, the San Francisco newspapers published extended accounts of the mysterious disappearance of Eleanor Maude Fuller, together with portraits of the girl. On that day also Charles B. Hadley mysteriously disappeared from San Francisco, and has not since been seen. This department, acting upon evidence now in its possession, accuses Charles B. Hadley of the murder of Eleanor Maude Fuller, and demands his arrest and detention wherever he may be found.

PERSONAL DESCRIPTION OF CHARLES B. HADLEY: American; apparent age, 40 years; height about 5 feet 9 inches; weight about 180 pounds; hair dark and tinged with gray, parted on right side and combed flat, as per photograph; face square and full, and without beard or moustache; chin square and slightly dimpled; mouth large and straight; nose rather broad, bridge slightly humped, base slightly flattened, point of base hangs below line of nostrils; ears medium large and prominent; eyes gray, medium large and well open.

DRESS: Generally wears plain business suit of good material, but has been known to assume garb which gave him the appearance of either a physician or a Protestant clergyman; wears diamond ring and diamond shirt-stud; generally wears collar and necktie as shown in photograph.

GENERAL APPEARANCE: Walks with body very erect, but with head tilted forward; one leg is slightly bowed, and it shows when he walks; is a man of pleasing address, good conversationalist, correct language as to grammar, fairly good education.

HABITS AND PECULIARITIES: Cohabited with a woman not his wife during one year prior to his disappearance; resided in lodging houses located in questionable portions of the city; his female companions were inmates of houses of prostitution, or other women of loose character; he drank heavily at times, often remaining drunk for a week; he spent his money freely, and was considered a good fellow by the men and women with whom he associated; he ate at restaurants, and always had his meals cooked to order, avoiding the regular bill of fare; he generally ate beefsteak, and would never eat the tenderloin portion of the steak; he was fond of salads, and of fried chicken and chicken prepared with mushrooms; he always carried a newspaper in his coat pocket; he sometimes wore false moustaches, and had them made to his order.

HISTORY: During the fourteen years prior to his disappearance, Hadley was employed as a bookkeeper by the San Francisco Examiner, a daily newspaper, and for some time prior to his disappearance he was subscription cashier for that paper. His mother's name is Mrs. John Start (widow) who now resides in Chicago, Illinois, U. S. A.

All officers who shall receive copies of this circular are requested to cause a diligent search of all hotels and lodging houses, steamship and railway ticket offices within their respective jurisdictions, for the purpose of ascertaining the present or prospective whereabouts of Charles B. Hadley. It is further requested that any positive information touching this matter be communicated without delay to this department. In the event of the arrest of any person suspected of being Charles B. Hadley, a photograph and full description of the suspected person should be at once taken and forwarded to this department.

Arrest for Forgery

I hold forgery warrant for Sam. W. Hunt, alias Jack Medley, subscription solicitor for San Francisco Chronicle here in the employ of the local agent, S. Harris, who swore to the complaint.

On May 3d Hunt forged Harris' name to a check of $21.00, and passed same on Mr. Haub of this city. Same day also stole $75.00 from Mr. Harris.

In April, 1900, Hunt forged a check in Stockton, and for it served a term in San Quentin. Was convict No. 18591. After his release on March 1, 1901, he solicited subscriptions to the San Jose Evening Herald under the name of Jack Medley, and while so employed stole a fine gold watch from a subscriber's house, also embezzled $30.00 of Herald subscription money. He is a fine talker and expert solicitor, and may apply for work in that line in your city under most any name. Should you learn of his whereabouts wire me such at my expense.

MURDERED BY A FOOTPAD

At 11 P. M. Saturday, May 17th, James Markham, a prominent employee at S. P. Co.'s Repair Shops, was stood up and shot here by an unknown footpad and died next day. Bullet is 38 caliber. When nearing Eighth and N Streets, Markham says he saw a short, light build young man coming along, wearing a Carnival mask, and when within a few feet distance this man presented a long barreled, nickel plated pistol and commanded Markham to throw up his hands. As it was at the close of the Street Fair Carnival, Markham treated the matter as a joke and walked away, when the murderous robber fired and fatally shot him and ran away at once. This man, certainly, is very inexperienced at "stick-up" work. He is evidently the same footpad who, three nights previous and in the same vicinity, attempted to hold up a boy named Dave McCullough. The boy ran and the robber fired a shot after him and ran away. He is described as a man about between twenty and thirty years old, 5 feet 4 inches to 5 feet 6 inches tall, about 130 to 140 pounds, short mustache, may now be smooth shaven, clothes looked dark at night, sack coat, black slouch hat. We do not know him, but luck or accident may reveal his identity to you. He may attempt to commit similar crimes in your city. Any information regarding his possible identity will be most thankfully received.

General Description.

20 years; 5 feet 5½; 123 pounds; build slim; hair dark; eyes blue; complexion medium; woman's bust on left arm; clasped hands, American flag and heart on right arm.

Charles Green and John Doyle, alias Fred. Mercer, are wanted for the murder of Austin J. Crowe, in this city, on the night of June 28th, 1902; the two other men connected with them in the murder are still unidentified, but will probably be found in their company, as the gang left the city together shortly after the murder.

Austin J. Crowe conducted a grocery and a saloon at the corner of Chicago and Fulton Streets, this city; on the evening of June 28th had closed his grocery and gone into his saloon for the purpose of closing his day's business; four men (two of them identified as Green and Doyle) entered the saloon and ordered drinks, which were furnished by Crowe. From a tenant occupying rooms over Crowe's, it is learned a dispute occurred as to the payment for the drinks. Crowe who was a courageous and athletic man, and never known to have had trouble in his saloon, ordered the men to leave his place, and undoubtedly endeavored to eject the men from the saloon; several shots were fired; three of the men escaped from the saloon through the door, the fourth man by jumping through the window carrying glass and sash with him.

Green and Doyle, alias Mercer, are both professional thieves, sneaks and pickpockets. Green belongs in this city, and was released from the State Industrial School, Rochester, June 28th, the day of the murder; he was sentenced to the Reformatory for sneaking a jewelry store in this city with four others, all being arrested in Toronto and brought back.

Doyle, alias Mercer, belongs in Toronto, Ont., where he has a bad record; he was paroled from the New York State Reformatory, Elmira, N. Y., February 20th, 1902, and was still under parol; he was committed there for larceny committed in this city.

It was either Green or Doyle that jumped through the window, and the one that did is supposed to be cut by the broken glass, either on the hand or leg or both, as we learn since they left the city that a person connected with the gang called on a doctor here and asked for bandages and instructions in binding a wound, but would not inform the doctor who the patient was or the nature of the injury.

They hang out at newsboys' and bootblacks' homes, working boys' homes and cheap lodging houses

See circular of July 7.

GREEN and DOYLE were traced to Denver, Colo., where Green was arrested July 28th. Doyle was tipped off by a local crook, eluded the officers and escaped; he was traced into Wyoming.

They were accompanied by two other men, J. Richards and Fred Chilton, both professional thieves from Toronto, Ont., and both supposed to be implicated in the Crowe murder. Richards was arrested with Green; Chilton escaped with Doyle. The gang were making for the Pacific Coast, where they intended to enlist either in army or navy; Doyle and Chilton may do so.

CHILTON is about 19 years, 5 feet 8, good build, fair complexion, grey eyes, light brown hair, smooth shaven, wore black derby, well worn blue double breasted sack coat, dark vest, striped pants, light cotton shirt, no collar, black enamel shoes much worn.

Another member of the gang, and suspected of the murder is a man named WILLIAM FLEMMING alias DOC FLEMMING, whom we have traced west as far as Chicago; he is 22 or 23 years old, 5 feet 9, 140 pounds, long face, long nose, long chin turned up in front, face tanned and weather beaten, dark brown hair, and blue eyes, very much pigeon toed, wore a grey checked cutaway coat, grey vest, dark blue pants, light outing shirt, no collar, black soft fedora hat, high crown not creased on top but 3 or 4 dents in side, patent leather shoes well worn cracked across the top.

The Common Council of the City of Buffalo at their regular sessions June 30th and July 3d, 1902, adopted a resolution requesting the Mayor to offer a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the murderers. In compliance with the resolution of the Common council of the City of Buffalo, I hereby offer a reward of $1,000 for the identification, arrest and conviction of the murderers of Austin J. Crowe, under the following conditions:

$500 REWARD for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the murderers.

ARREST FOR MURDER.

G. V. Baldwin, who is described as follows: About 5 feet 7 or 8 inches in height, medium built, weight 145 to 150 pounds; dark complexion, dark hair, dark eyes, and dark mustasche; wore a dark suit of clothes, square cut coat, and black Fedora hat.

Another description is as follows: Height 5 feet, 8 or 8½ inches, weight about 160 pounds, full face, about 30 to 35 years old, ruddy complexion, dark brown mustasche, and hair ragged and uneven and needed cutting. Wore brown coat and black Fedora hat.

A third description is as follows: Light hair, brown mustache, full and long face, weight 150 to 160 pounds, smiles while conversing, and wore brown coat and brown fedora hat. Spoke of having been in Boise City, Idaho, and also in Arizona, and talked considerably about mining.

On the night of December 18, 1902, the store of T. H. Eicholz, an old man about 60 years of age, whose premises was on Kern street in this city, and in the rear of which was his bedroom, was entered by the above described party, and the old man was brutally murdered. From appearances the murder was committed in the following manner: The old man had evidently neglected to lock his door and was sitting in front of his stove in a chair with an old comforter across his lap. He was struck first in the back of the head with a hammer, and rendered insensible, when the murderer procured a new ax from the rear of the store, with which he dealt the prostrate body two heavy blows on the head with the blade of the ax, driving it to the hilt, A sack of coin which the old man was known to possess cannot be found and it is supposed that the murderer got it. Nothing else was taken.

G. V. Baldwin, the above described party, came to Fresno seven to ten days ago, and applied to the railroad company for work, saying that he was a railroad man and was hard up. He afterwards left his laundry at a barber shop and gave his name as G. V. Baldwin. The murderer left his cuffs in the store and they were identified by the barber as part of the Baldwin laundry. The laundry mark upon the cuffs was "A 36" and near this mark was another (which had been cancelled by running a line through it) of the letters "F. J. A." The laundry mark was at first supposed to be "A. 16" but on closer inspection proved to be "A. 36."

Arrest anyone filling the above description and wire,

J. D. MORGAN, Chief of Police, or J. D. COLLINS, Sheriff,

Fresno, Fresno Co., Cal.

Springing from the side of the road, along which the girl was riding home from the Post Office at Orinda, one of the ruffians grabbed the horse by the bit, the other thrust a pistol in the girl's face, pulled her off her horse, took her into a deep gulch and there both assaulted her, after which they bound her hands behind her back with a short trace chain, padlocked the chain, tied her feet and legs with a bale rope and then left her in the gulch, where moaning and suffering for five long hours she waited release.

The description given by the girl, necessarily a meagre one, makes the men from 23 to 35 years of age, both of medium size and slim build. Age 26 years, but looks younger, light blond, large full blue eyes, left eye is smaller than right, has a scar in front of ear from an abcess, (don't know which side of face scar is on), wears a No. 3 or 3 1-2 shoe, thin featured, very quick in her walk and actions, is addicted to the use of morphine and paregoric.

When she left Nevada City wore a ring on the third finger of her left hand, a long red stone in center, two chip diamonds on one side of stone, and one on the other side, one of the diamonds being lost out of the ring, leaving the place where fourth diamond should be, vacant, had on when she left here a black dress skirt, and plaid waist, may have changed clothes since, wears large plain hat, brown fur collarette, lined with dark purple, place on back a little to left where fur is worn off, which shows plainly. I am particularly anxious to locate this woman as she left her home and family, while under the influence of morphine, and would respectfully ask all peace officers to keep a sharp look out for her, and notify all drug stores to be on the look out for her, as she will go to a drug store for morphine or paregoric about twice a week. She may go under the name of Mrs. H. B. Rathbone, or in fact any other name as the notion takes her. If found detain and wire me at my expense and I will come after her.

FROM THE RANCH OF WM. MOHR, about 8 miles south of Modesto, on the Crow's Landing road (the Dr. Hall ranch): Two horse mules, one black and one bay; the black is about 10 or 12 years old, weight about 1050 lbs., branded 55 on left shoulder, brand is very dim. Mule has harness marks, one of front feet is crooked, turns under from the out side and is hard to fit a shoe on. The bay mule is about the same age, weight about 950 or 1000 lbs., branded 55 on left shoulder, will have to look very close to see brand. Has harness marks, has sore on left side of neck, near top, caused from collar pad, had on a halter and chain. The black is taller than the bay, but both very solid and chunky. The bay is very mean about the ears and hard to bridle.

Stolen 1903

I will pay $20.00 reward for arrest and conviction of thief and return of mules, if stolen.

Arrest any one found in possession, and wire at my expense, I hold warrant.

Highwayman wore a mask made of some black material, and his hat was covered with about the same material as his mask. His body was covered with a sort of hunting jacket made of sacks with large pocket sewed on the outside.

89.- for Jan 9th, Checks. 89.-

Wanted in Santa Cruz.

Age 25 to 28 years, height 5 feet 7 or 8 inches, weight about 130 or 150 pounds, light complectioned, smooth shaven, little sunburnt, American by birth, was dressed in a brown suit of clothes, tan shoes, and new Panama hat; claims to be a solicitor for the Sun Advertising Co., soliciting rights to put up signs along the county road and along the Railroad Company's property in various counties.

I want him for grand larceny in this county, he hired a horse and buggy for two days from a livery stable, took it and sold it in San Jose, which I have recovered. This man went in to an Automobile Shop in San Jose and wanted to buy an Auto. In doing so he showed the proprietor two checks, one on a San Francisco Bank for $1000, and one on a San Jose Bank for $7.50. I don't think that the checks were of any value, and that they were bogus. If found, arrest; I hold warrant for grand larceny. Notify livery men to keep a lookout for him.

ARREST FOR MURDER

E. A. Lewis and A. S. Richards, who had been working together at New Hope; were in Galt Friday, December 18, 1903, waiting for S. P. Co. train No. 287 at 9 o'clock. They intended to beat this freight train out of Galt. While in Galt Richards conspired with a negro to rob Lewis and throw him off the train. A short distance west of Lodi Richards drew a pistol and held Lewis up while the negro robbed him. They then threw him off the oil car on which they were riding and broke his arm.

It appears that the negro had two other pals (negroes), who then robbed Richards and threw him off, killing him. The negroes went to Tracy on No. 287, arriving there at 1 o'clock Saturday morning, December 19th, 1903. They immediately caught another freight south and were ditched by Conductor Moore at Newman. They caught a closely following freight (No. 246), and went to Mendota, where they were seen about noon Saturday, December 19th, 1903.

We have description of one negro; he is 6 feet tall, big man, but not fleshy; 24 years old, light Fedora hat, circular crown; rather long, square-cut dark sack coat, dark red sweater, dirty; striped pants.

Please watch closely for these three negroes and if found arrest all three for murder. I hold warrant. WALTER F. SIBLEY, Sheriff.
